As you walk down the pathway, do you feel a sense of privilege, as though someone has created beauty just for you? Generations from now, will someone feel the same way, as they cross this very same path?

Twelve by twelves. Walk slowly, and take notice.

You can't help but feel more aware of your surroundings when you walk across our 12x12 paver slabs. These large, dramatic slabs paint a picture of enduring style, as their size presents a bigger canvas for displaying their rich color blends and hues. Designed specifically for pedestrian use, 12x12 paver slabs are easier to walk on, and ideal for areas with heavy foot traffic. Pool decks, patios, courtyards and entrance areas take on a distinctive personality when paved with 12 x 12s. Think about contrasting colors for even more impact.
