An architect doesn't see things the way they are, or even the way they could be. He sees them the way they've never been before.

Multilock™ Fashion meets function.

For designs that need strength and excitement, Multilock™ pavers create dozens of patterns from one simple stone. Its triangular configuration forces the pavers to interlock in several ways, making your surface extremely stable. Though often used in municipal and commercial projects, the strength of Multilock™ is also welcome at home. Possible patterns include double axis, concentric, broken and unbroken joint and staggered line. Available in a wide variety of colors, Multilock™'s attractive form follows its exceptional function.
